

Frank Giammattei, M.D.

Dr. Giammattei joined the Orthopaedic Associates Division of Premier Orthopaedics in 1986. Dr. Giammattei has been practicing orthopaedics in Delaware County for 25 years. He finished his orthopaedic residency at Thomas Jefferson University Hospital in 1985. He joined the Orthopaedic department at Crozer Chester Medical Center and Riddle Memorial Hospital that year. His practice largely consists of total hip and total knee replacements.

Dr. Giammattei is a member of the American Medical Association, Pennsylvania Orthopaedic Medical Society, Jefferson Orthopaedic Society and Delaware County Medical Society. He has a special interest in documenting the improvement in patient's quality of life after a joint replacement has been done.

Dr. Giammattei resides in Swarthmore with his wife and four children.

Dr. Giammattei maintains medical staff privileges at Crozer-Keystone Health System and Main Line Health System/Riddle Memorial Hospital.