

James T. McGlynn, MD

Dr. McGlynn joined Orthopaedic Associates Division of Premier Orthopaedics in 1991, after completing a four-year commitment with the U.S. Navy, including a tour of duty in Desert Storm. Dr. McGlynn has a special interest in Sports Medicine, including arthroscopic surgery of both the upper and lower extremities. He is also skilled in joint replacement of the shoulder, knee and hip.

Graduating from the University of Scranton with a B.S. degree in Biology, Dr. McGlynn received his M.D. from Georgetown University in 1982. He completed his orthopaedic residency at Georgetown University Medical Center in 1987. He remains Board Certified in orthopaedic surgery since 1989 and earned subspecialty certification in Orthopaedic Sports Medicine in 2009.

Dr. McGlynn is a member of the following societies: American Academy of Orthopaedic Surgery, American Medical Association, Delaware County Medical Society, Pennsylvania Medical Society, Pennsylvania Orthopaedic Society, and the Society for Military Orthopaedic Surgeons. He is presently the Team Physician for the Philadelphia Union of Major League Soccer, and the Team Physician for Cardinal O'Hara High School.

Dr. McGlynn maintains medical staff privileges at Crozer Keystone Health System and Main Line Health System/Riddle Memorial Hospital in Pennsylvania and at St. Francis Hospital in Delaware. He is a native of Delaware County and currently resides in Wallingford with his wife and has two grown children.