

R. Bruce Lutz, M.D.

Dr. Lutz joined the Orthopaedic Associates Division of Premier Orthopaedics in 1992. He is fellowship trained in Orthopaedic Traumatology. Dr. Lutz has special interest and skills in pediatric and adult fracture care. He has expertise in non-union and post traumatic reconstruction surgery.

Dr. Lutz graduated from Lehigh University with a B.A. He received his MD degree from Jefferson Medical College in 1982. He completed his orthopaedic residency at the San Diego Naval Hospital. Dr. Lutz served in the U.S. Navy from 1983 to 1991. Dr. Lutz served as the Battalion Surgeon for the 1st Marine Division at Camp Pendleton and served as the Staff Orthopaedic Surgeon at the Naval Hospital in Groton, Ct., rank lieutenant commander. He received the Naval Commendation Medal. He was deployed to Saudi Arabia with the 2nd Marine Division in support of Operation Desert Storm. In 1992 Dr. Lutz completed his Orthopaedic Traumatology Fellowship at the R Adams Cowley Shock Trauma Center University of Maryland.

Dr. Lutz is board certified by the American Board of Orthopaedic Surgery. He is also a member of the American Academy of Orthopaedic Surgeons, Pennsylvania Orthopaedic Society and the Orthopaedic Trauma Association. Dr. Lutz serves as an Adjunct Assistant Professor at Hahnemann and Temple University.

He resides in Media with his wife and has four grown children.

Dr. Lutz maintains medical staff privileges at Crozer-Keystone Health System and Main Line Health System/Riddle Memorial Hospital.