

James McGlynn, M.D.

Dr. McGlynn joined Orthopaedic Associates Division of Premier Orthopaedics in 1991, after completing his residency with the U. S. Navy. Dr. McGlynn has a special interest in Sports Medicine, including arthroscopic surgery of both upper and lower extremities. He is also skilled in both hip and knee joint replacement.

Dr. McGlynn graduated from the University of Scranton with a BS in Biology. He received his MD degree from Georgetown University in 1982. He completed his orthopaedic residency at Georgetown University Medical Center in 1987.

Dr. McGlynn is a native of Delaware County and has practiced there his whole career. Dr. McGlynn is a Board Certified member of the American Academy of Orthopaedic Surgeons. He also received his Sports Medicine certification in 2000. Dr. McGlynn is also a member of the American College of Sports Medicine, Delaware County Medical Society Pennsylvania Medical Society, Pennsylvania Orthopaedic Society, and the Society for Military Orthopaedic Surgeons. Dr. McGlynn earned a Certificate of Added Qualifications in Sports Medicine from the American Board of Orthopaedic Surgery and was notified of this in January 2010.

Dr. McGlynn was recently chosen to be the Team Physician for the Philadelphia Union of Major League Soccer. He is also the Team Physician for Cardinal O'Hara High School.

He lives in Wallingford with his wife and two grown children.

Dr. McGlynn maintains medical staff privileges at Crozer Keystone Health System and Main Line Health System/Riddle Memorial Hospital.