

Raymond Wolfe, M.D.

Dr. Wolfe joined the Orthopaedic Associates Division of Premier Orthopaedics in 2003. He completed his orthopaedic residency at Georgetown University Medical Center in 2000. Dr. Wolfe is an orthopedic surgeon with a focus on Sports Medicine, joint replacement and shoulder problems.

Dr. Wolfe graduated with a BS in Biology from the University of Scranton. He received his MD degree from Georgetown University in 1995 and completed his orthopaedic residency at Georgetown University Medical Center in 2000. He is a board certified member of the American Academy of Orthopaedic Surgeons and is also a member of the Pennsylvania Orthopaedic Society and the American College of Surgeons.

He lives in Boothwyn with his wife and three children.

He maintains medical privileges at Crozer-Keystone Health System and Main Line Health System/Riddle Memorial Hospital., Brinton Lake Surgery Center.