

David Yucha, M.D.

Dr. Yucha joined the Orthopaedic Associates Division of Premier Orthopaedics in 2009. He completed his orthopaedic residency at Temple University Hospital in 2007. Dr. Yucha also completed a fellowship in Sports Medicine at Thomas Jefferson University Hospital. Dr. Yucha assisted as team physician for the Philadelphia Phillies and Philadelphia Eagles during his fellowship training during the 2008 season. Dr. Yucha has special interest in Sports Medicine and athletic injury, as well as general orthopaedics.

A resident of Chester County, Dr. Yucha graduated with a BA in history from the University of Pennsylvania and a MS in Biology from St. Joseph's University. He received his MD from Temple University in 2002. Dr. Yucha is a member of the Alpha Omega Alpha Honor Medical Society. He covers team sports for Cardinal O'Hara High School, Williamson Trade School and other local high schools and colleges.

He lives in Berwyn with his wife and two children.

He maintains privileges at Crozer-Keystone Health System and Main Line Health System/Riddle Memorial Hospital.